CURRENT ISSUES OF ENERGY

Bakhodir Absalamovich Narimanov
Senior Lecturer of Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute

Doston Ravshan ogli Nurillaev
Master of Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute

Ashraf Sharof ogli Davirov
Master of Jizzakh Polytechnic Institute

ABSTRACT

The article analyzes the estimates of international organizations that due to economic development, the demand for energy will increase by more than 50% by 2030 compared to the beginning of the century, and the total demand will be very high, resulting in a negative impact on the environment.

Keywords: alternative energy sources, renewable energy, solar power, atmosphere, solar power plants, carbon dioxide, wind power plants.